

§ 33.2 Definitions.

The term “unpaid compensation,” as defined in the act and when used in this part, means the pay, salary, or allowances, or other compensation due on account of the services of the decedent for the Federal Government or the government of the District of Columbia. It shall include, but not be limited to,

(a) All per diem in lieu of subsistence, mileage, and amounts due in reimbursement of travel expenses, including incidental and miscellaneous expenses which are incurred in connection with the travel and for which reimbursement is due;

(b) All allowances upon change of official station;

(c) All quarters and cost-of-living allowances and overtime or premium pay;

(d) Amounts due for payment of cash awards for employees’ suggestions;

(e) Amounts due as refund of salary deductions for U.S. Savings bonds;

(f) Payment for all accumulated and current accrued annual or vacation leave equal to the compensation the decedent would have received had he lived and remained in the service until the expiration of the period of such annual or vacation leave;

(g) The amounts of all checks drawn in payment of such compensation which were not delivered by the Government to the officer or employee during his lifetime or of any unnegotiated checks returned to the Government because of the death of the officer or employee.

§ 33.4 Notifying employees; agency responsibility.

Each agency of the Government affected will bring to the attention of its civilian employees the provisions of the act relative to their right to designate a beneficiary or beneficiaries to receive the amounts due and the disposition to be made of unpaid amounts where no beneficiary or beneficiaries have been designated.

[22 FR 10891, Dec. 28, 1957]

§ 33.5 Designation of beneficiary.

(a) Designation Form. SF 1152, Designation of Beneficiary, Unpaid Compensation of Deceased Civilian Employee, is prescribed for use by employees in designating a beneficiary and in changing or revoking a previous designation. However, in the absence of the prescribed form, any designation, change, or cancellation of beneficiary witnessed and filed in accordance with the general requirements of this part shall be acceptable. Each agency subject to the provisions of the act will furnish the employee SF 1152 upon request therefor.

(b) Who may be designated. An employee may designate any person or persons as beneficiary. The term “person or persons” as used in this part includes a legal entity or the estate of the deceased employee.

(c) Executing and filing a designation of beneficiary form. The SF 1152 must be executed in duplicate by the employee and filed with the employing agency where the proper officer will sign it and insert the date of receipt in the space provided on each part, file the original, and return the duplicate to the employee. The designation will be filed in the particular office which authorizes payment of the employee’s compensation, or such other place as the head of the agency may direct.

(d) Effective period of a designation. A designation of beneficiary, properly executed and filed in the agency of employment, unless earlier changed or revoked in writing, will be effective as long as employment by the same agency continues and thereafter until the employee is transferred or reemployed by the same or another department or agency of the Government.
